To Whom It May Concern,

Aristotle Recruitment (formerly EurolinkGlobal) was established in 1988 and is part of the Aristotle Corporation, a privately owned organisation founded in 1979 by its current Chief Executive. The organisation has over 160 staff, a network of offices worldwide and a turnover for the last financial year in excess of $92 million.

The Australian company has provided skilled professionals and best practice solutions for over 14 years. They have strong local market knowledge and have long established relationships and preferred supplier status with many Australian and Global Corporate.

Aristotle has used the services of Four Corners Emigration to process permanent residency visas for various staff members within the company including myself.

Claire McGregor a Senior Migration Officer at Four Corners Emigration and has been our primary point of contact and handled all of these cases for us.

The service we have received has been nothing other than first class and I continue to refer my family, closest friends, work colleagues and business contacts to her on a regular basis. All of which have been just as happy with the level of service provided by Four Corners.

Claire and the Four Corners staff have always been readily available to answer any queries or questions, they provide regular update reports and are, in my eyes, experts in their field.

We will continue to use and refer Four Corners Emigration as we are very happy with the exceptional services they have provided.

Kind Regards,

Melanie Allen
